

A Preferred Platform Alliance Group Partner

Introducing GuildSuper

(Helping you towards a SUPER future)

Who are GuildSuper?

They're a superannuation fund established by the Pharmacy Guild of Australia, with a special focus on supporting women in the pharmacy industry. They're not just your average fund - they actively support national and state-based pharmacy association conferences, training events, and various community health initiatives.

Why choose GuildSuper?

GuildSuper has more than 93,000 members in their fund (and counting!) and $2.6 billion funds under management. They help their members enjoy the financial future and freedom they deserve. As one of Australia's best performing super funds (according to the financial comparison experts at Canstar) with competitive fees, you can rest assured your employees' hard-earned money is in safe hands.

What is GuildSuper's promise to The Platform Alliance Group?

By joining GuildSuper, you will:

- Get access to an online clearing house at no extra cost. It's a real time-saver!
- Be an employer of choice by offering great employee benefits, like their shop-and-save rewards program, SuperSuper, and their medical and wellness app, Virtual Care.
- Fulfill your employer 'default' fund obligations as specified in the Pharmacy Industry Award.
- Have more time to focus on your business. Their consultants can provide your employees with face-to-face general advice and all the information they need about their super. So, you can trust that your employees are taken care of, while you can concentrate on what you do best.

Peace of mind guarantee

GuildSuper been taking care of the superannuation needs of pharmacy employers and their employees for over 18 years, so you can trust that their products and services are specifically designed to meet yours and your employees' needs.

“Guild Super have been with me since the beginning of my Pharmacy Journey. Firstly as an employee pharmacist and now as the owner of multiple businesses. The Employer Partnership Team have been wonderful in answering any queries and supporting me whenever I have had any troubles.

My team have always received excellent support as well as protected benefits for their superannuation balances. The extra services that GuildSuper provide have, and will continue to be, essential moving forward in the constantly changing climate that pharmacy finds itself in.”
